

Hyland for Guidewire ClaimCenter

Redefine insurance claims with a modern enterprise content solution

As the insurance industry undergoes rapid transformation, innovation has become essential — not optional. For policyholders, the claims process often serves as the ultimate test of an insurer's ability to deliver a fast, frictionless resolution when it matters most.

Hyland for Guidewire ClaimCenter accelerates claims transformation with a ready-to-deploy integration between the Hyland Content Innovation Cloud™ (CIC) and ClaimCenter. Validated by the Ready for Guidewire program, this solution delivers powerful, cloud-native content management capabilities within the familiar ClaimCenter interface. Insurers can reduce the cost of building their own integration and speed implementation time while tapping into the unlimited potential of the scalable, AI-powered Content Innovation Cloud.

Benefits

Reduce the time, expense and complexity of a custom integration

Increase the speed and precision of claims — enhancing customer satisfaction

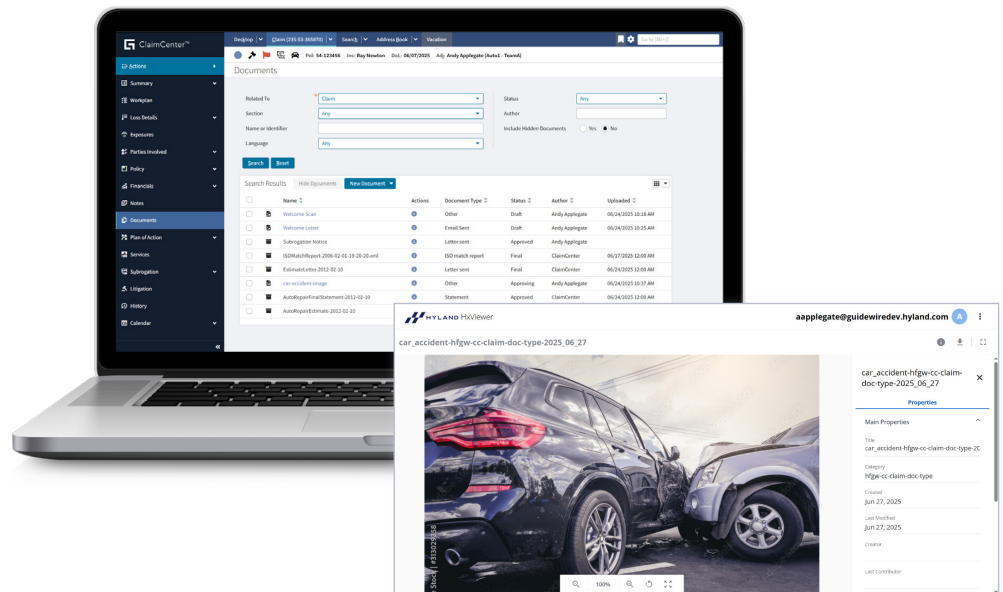

Leverage the flexibility and scalability of a cloud-native enterprise content platform

Future-proof your claims processes with optional AI-powered intelligent document processing (IDP) and workflow automation

Key features

- Easily query and retrieve claims documents from a flexible, cloud-native repository
- View images and document properties directly within ClaimCenter
- Quickly upload documents, images and videos into the Content Innovation Cloud
- Leverage optional AI-powered IDP, AI agents and intelligent automation through CIC

A unified platform for the next era of insurance

Transforming claims and policyholder experiences, Hyland Content Innovation Cloud lays the groundwork for future success. It's all about bringing together content, processes and applications into a single, intelligent ecosystem. CIC connects fragmented content and enterprise data currently scattered across various repositories, transforming siloed data into AI-ready, actionable intelligence — eliminating the need for disruptive migrations. As a unified content, process and application intelligence platform, CIC goes beyond traditional content management, unlocking critical insights, driving automation and turning your content from an untapped resource into a strategic advantage.

Hyland for Guidewire ClaimCenter transforms claims management for forward-looking insurers — empowering seamless, customer-first experiences.
